RADIO HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION OF COLORADO

The Radio Historical Association of Colorado is an organization dedicated to the regeneration of interest and enjoyment of Old Time Radio.

Old Time Radio appeals to young and old alike. Not all of our members have first hand knowledge of the "Golden Age of Radio", but they have gained a better insight through the varied activities and opportunities of the Radio Historical Association of Colorado.

Old Time Radio never really died. Fortunately, it was preserved, and in the last few years it has had a rebirth through the hard work of collectors. Many transcriptions were saved and are turning up all over the country, much to the delight of all lovers of radio entertainment.

Old Time Radio still has the power to hold the attention of the listener. Modern radio and television programming does not have this power. A listener can spend an evening lost in his own mind's eye, cringing in terror at the sound of the creaking door of Inner Sanctum, laughing at the exploits of Amos 'n' Andy, trying to picture in your imagination what the hall looked like after Fibber McGee opened the closet door, and trying to figure out how Jack Armstrong was going to get out of this situation.

The Old Time Radio collector enjoys his involvement in these and other shows. He collects what he enjoys and builds a very respectable collection. He may have started years ago, taping right off the radio, or he may have purchased shows from a dealer. If he was lucky enough, like we are here in Denver, he would have been able to tape from a current show which plays old radio favorites. He then could have traded locally with other collectors or traded with others around the country in order to increase his library.

The RHAC does not sell shows. We do have a tape lending library available to all members for a rental fee of $1.25. This library was started in July, 1975 and during the years immediately following, over 100 reels were made available to our members. We did away with those first 100 reels and began again, this time only making available those shows which were in excellent sound quality. The tape library now numbers 310 reels. The rental fee is small and the money is placed in reserve in order to purchase new shows from dealers or other sources. These tapes are then put into circulation for our members. This service is especially helpful to beginning collectors.

The RHAC also has the opportunity to purchase blank recording tape at bulk prices. This bulk purchasing power enables our members to save about 25% per reel.

Communication is very important to any successful organization. An updated membership list is printed periodically and distributed to our members. We strongly urge members to trade among themselves and to look for shows which are not available locally.

The RHAC publishes a fine monthly newsletter. It was originally intended to notify members of the next meeting and any radio news of local interest. It began to grow and now contains radio stories, serials, trivia quizzes, other Old Time Radio club activities and many other items of interest to collectors and radio buffs.

The Radio Historical Association of Colorado holds monthly meetings. The tape lending library is available for sign-up at each meeting (or by mail). Future plans include discussions of the old shows and the stars, recorded trivia quizzes, interesting contests and naturally, trading tapes. We have been very fortunate in the past few years to have had many interesting guest speakers and will continue to have them in the future.

The RHAC has been very active over the years. We have been happy to donate over 100 reels of shows to the blind. Some of our members have shared their collections and knowledge of radio with the elderly by entertaining at senior citizen homes. Some members have spoken before church groups and in schools. We would like to be even more involved in these projects.

We have added a fine reference library to our club. It contains over 6000 pages of old time radio material on almost every show. There is a small rental fee for this service, mainly to cover the cost of mailing.

As a member of the RHAC you are entitled to receive a discount on your stereo equipment repairs at a local shop. You will also be entitled to a discount on the purchase of new stereo equipment at a local dealer.

Membership in the RHAC is $15.00 per year. Members receive the monthly newsletter, access to the tape lending library, access to the reference library, ability to buy stereo equipment at discount prices, ability to buy blank recording tape at discount prices, discounts on stereo repairs and much more.

This should answer some of the questions you might have about our organization. We cordially invite you to our next meeting and meet some of our members. They will be more than happy to give you some tips on how to become an Old Time Radio collector.

Your involvement in RHAC activities will make everyone's job a lot easier and make the Radio Historical Association of Colorado a very strong organization.

It is a fascinating hobby for us and we feel it is a definite alternative to any other entertainment medium. Come join us!

MINI-SUPPLEMENT

Old time radio recordings & services

SPRING/SUMMER

BRC is pleased to present a sampling of our new OTR releases and new services for 1983. Since we haven't had a flyer out since SUMMER '82, we have much new material to offer and some exclusive new services available to collectors who are perfectionists...collectors who want flawless, upgraded masters but don't have the time to do the job properly...or the patience...or equipment.

Our OTR tape prices are unchanged from last year. In fact, we have the following DISCOUNT offer to make to anyone who has placed an order with us anytime during 1982-83: You may deduct 15% from our standard rates given below for all OTR orders. New customers may deduct 5%, then may take the 15% discount upon placing their second order. This offer is good through 9/15/83. OTR rates are as follows:

COMPLETE REELS: $10.00 per reel number (used Ampex 641 in new box)
14.00 per reel number (factory fresh Scotch 177 in new box)
CUSTOM CASSETTE: 6.50 per hour (custom loaded w/Ampex or other quality tape)
6.00 per hour (Ten or more cassettes ordered at one time)

ALL CASSETTES are neatly labeled, packed in Norelco-style boxes and feature noise reduction encoding compatible with all cassette players.

This flyer contains a sampling of what we offer in a 10-page supplement which is obtainable for a self-addressed-stamped envelope.

OLD-TIME RADIO PROGRAMS ON TAPE

1983 SPRING SALE--VINTAGE BROADCASTS, 42 BOWLING GREEN, STATEN ISLAND, NY

The following four reels contain complete shows from the mid-1950's...a real-life police drama from CBS. All cases are real with no actors and no sound effects. A kind-of "No-Frills" radio drama, but very well done...

L. Ron Hubbard's SPACE JAZZ

The Soundtrack of the Book Battlefield Earth

Earth has been under the domination of an alien race of Psychlo monsters for more than 1000 years. A few remaining humans on the planet have been subjected to cruel, plundering domination from the tough, crude race, utterly helpless until Jonnie Goodboy Tyler emerges to begin the saga of Battlefield Earth.

L. RON HUBBARD is the originator of an exciting and dynamic new concept in music—Space Jazz.

Space Jazz is an original musical form based on the recently developed Fairlight Computer Musical Instrument (Fairlight CMI). It marks the point where computer technology caught up with musicians.

But, Space Jazz is more than just another new sound. Space Jazz is the soundtrack of the book Battlefield Earth.

Performed by leading musicians, the Space Jazz soundtrack takes you on a three-dimensional adventure through the book Battlefield Earth, stimulating your imagination, letting you actually experience the excitement and tension of the written text.

Space Jazz, released on the Applause label, is available in record or cassette form. The two leading pieces, "JONNIE" and "ALIEN VISITORS ATTACK," are also available on a 45rpm single release.

Battlefield Earth and Space Jazz make perfect gifts for your friends and family. Months of stimulating entertainment for the young and old.
